Prayers and readings for this Sunday

Hymn 719                      We plough the fields

We plough the fields and scatter
the good seed on the land, but it is fed and watered by God's almighty hand;
he sends the snow in winter,
the warmth to swell the grain,
the breezes and the sunshine and soft, refreshing rain.

*All good gifts around us
are sent from heaven above, then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord for all his love.*

He only is the maker
of all things near and far;
he paints the wayside flower,
he lights the evening star;
he fills the earth with beauty,

by him the birds are fed;
much more to us, his children,
he gives our daily bread.

All good gifts around us ...

We thank thee then, O Father, for all things bright and good,
the seed-time and the harvest,
our life, our health, our food:
accept the gifts we offer
for all thy love imparts;
and what thou most desirest,
our humble, thankful hearts.

All good gifts around us ...

The Collect

Eternal God,
you crown the year with your goodness and you give us the fruits of the earth in their season:
grant that we may use them to your glory, for the relief of those in need and for our own well-being;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen

Not used in any of our services today.

Deuteronomy 8: 7 – 18 (neither service)

<sup>7</sup> For the Lord your God is bringing you into a good land, a land with flowing streams, with springs and underground waters welling up in valleys and hills, <sup>8</sup> a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive trees and honey, <sup>9</sup> a land where you may eat bread without scarcity, where you will lack nothing, a land whose stones are iron and from whose hills you may mine copper. <sup>10</sup> You shall eat your fill and bless the Lord your God for the good land that he has given you. <sup>11</sup> Take care that you do not forget the Lord your God, by failing to keep his commandments, his ordinances, and his statutes, which I am commanding you today. <sup>12</sup> When you have eaten your fill and have built fine houses and live in them, <sup>13</sup> and when your herds and flocks have multiplied, and your silver and gold is multiplied, and all that you have is multiplied, <sup>14</sup> then do not exalt yourself, forgetting the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery, <sup>15</sup> who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, an arid waste-land with poisonous snakes and scorpions. He made water flow for you from flint rock, <sup>16</sup> and fed you in the wilderness with manna that your ancestors did not know, to humble you and to test you, and in the end to do you good. <sup>17</sup> Do not say to yourself, 'My power and the might of my own hand have gained me this wealth.' <sup>18</sup> But remember the Lord your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth, so that he may confirm his covenant that he swore to your ancestors, as he is doing today.

Psalm 65 – All things sing your praise

Used at 9am
Parish Communion

All things sing your praise O God.

Morning and evening are bright with your glory: you visit the earth and bless it with rain. You crown the year with your goodness: and the land overflows with plenty.

All things sing your praise O God.

The hills are girded about with joy: the fields are filled with sheep. The valleys stand so thick with corn: they shout for joy and sing.

All things sing your praise O God.

Used at both services

The New Testament Reading 2 Corinthians 9: 6 – 15

<sup>6</sup> The point is this: the one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. <sup>7</sup> Each of you must give as you have made up your mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. <sup>8</sup> And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work. <sup>9</sup> As it is written, 'He scatters abroad, he gives to the poor; his righteousness endures for ever.' <sup>10</sup> He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. <sup>11</sup> You will be enriched in every way for your great generosity, which will produce thanksgiving to God through us; <sup>12</sup> for the rendering of this ministry not only supplies the needs of the saints but also overflows with many thanksgivings to God. <sup>13</sup> Through the testing of this ministry you glorify God by your obedience to the confession of the gospel of Christ and by the generosity of your sharing with them and with all others, <sup>14</sup> while they long for you and pray for you because of the surpassing grace of God that he has given you. <sup>15</sup> Thanks be to God for his indescribable gift!

The Gospel Luke 12: 16 – 30

Used at both services

<sup>16</sup> Then he told them a parable: ‘The land of a rich man produced abundantly. <sup>17</sup> And he thought to himself, “What should I do, for I have no place to store my crops?” <sup>18</sup> Then he said, “I will do this: I will pull down my barns and build larger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods. <sup>19</sup> And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have ample goods laid up for many years; relax, eat, drink, be merry.” <sup>20</sup> But God said to him, “You fool! This very night your life is being demanded of you. And the things you have prepared, whose will they be?” <sup>21</sup> So it is with those who store up treasures for themselves but are not rich towards God.’ <sup>22</sup> He said to his disciples, ‘Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat, or about your body, what you will wear. <sup>23</sup> For life is more than food, and the body more than clothing. <sup>24</sup> Consider the ravens: they neither sow nor reap, they have neither storehouse nor barn, and yet God feeds them. Of how much more value are you than the birds! <sup>25</sup> And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? <sup>26</sup> If then you are not able to do so small a thing as that, why do you worry about the rest? <sup>27</sup> Consider the lilies, how they grow: they neither toil nor spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. <sup>28</sup> But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, how much more will he clothe you—you of little faith! <sup>29</sup> And do not keep striving for what you are to eat and what you are to drink, and do not keep worrying. <sup>30</sup> For it is the nations of the world that strive after all these things, and your Father knows that you need them.

This week, please remember in your prayers these areas of our parish:

Choir Anthem: Now join we, to praise the creator (words: Fred Kaan, b. 1929; music: Paul Bateman, b. 1954)

Now join we , to praise the Creator, our voices in worship and song;
we stand to recall with thanksgiving that to God all seasons belong:

We thank you, O Source of all goodness, for the joy and abundance of crops,
for food that is stored in our larders,
for all we can buy in the shops.

But also of need and starvation
we sing with concern and despair, of skills that are used for destruction,
of land that is burnt and laid bare.

We cry for the plight of the hungry while harvests are left on the field, for orchards neglected and wasting,
for produce from markets withheld.

The song grows in depth and in wideness;
the earth and its people are one.
There can be no thanks without giving,
no word without deeds that are done.

Then teach us, O God of the harvest, to be humble in all that we claim,
to share what we have with the nations,
to care for the world in your name.

Post Communion

Lord of the harvest, with joy we have offered thanksgiving for your love in creation and have shared in the bread and wine of the kingdom:
by your grace plant within us a reverence for all that you give us and make us generous and wise stewards of the good things we enjoy;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

Hymn 184 For the beauty of the earth

For the beauty of the earth,
For the beauty of the skies,
For the love which from our birth
Over and around us lies:
*Lord of all, to thee we raise
This our sacrifice of praise.*

For the beauty of each hour
Of the day and of the night,
Hill and vale, and tree and flow'r,
Sun and moon, and stars of light:
*Lord of all, to thee we raise
This our sacrifice of praise.*

For the joy of human love,
Brother, sister, parent, child,
Friends on earth, and friends above,
Pleasures pure and undefiled:
*Lord of all, to thee we raise
This our sacrifice of praise.*

For each perfect gift of Thine
To our race so freely giv'n,
Graces human and divine,
Flow'rs of earth and buds of heav'n:
*Lord of all, to thee we raise
This our sacrifice of praise.*

For thy Church that evermore
Lifteth holy hands above,
Off'ring up on every shore
Her pure sacrifice of love:
*Lord of all, to thee we raise
This our sacrifice of praise.*

Did you know? The insurance bill for the Church each month totals £576.15, which divided is £455.33 for the church, £120.82 for the hall. That's nearly £19 per day or over £6,900 per year.

The Tuesday Home Group is meeting next week at 7.30pm in church for some prayer and a short look at a bible passage. It is then heading to the Orange Tree for some more fellowship. Please let Andrew know if you would like to come.

For Harvest we are having a collection of tinned and packeted goods for the Foodbank and we would appreciate receiving gifts of biscuits, tinned fish, UHT or dried milk, tinned or dried potatoes. We do have large stocks of pasta, soup and beans. These can be brought to church today or left at the Church Hall when the foodbank is open – Tuesdays and Fridays 10am to 12 noon. Thank you.

The foodbank are very grateful for all donations and your support. At this time

We will also be supporting the Christian Aid Harvest Appeal to support communities around the world in crisis. Donations can be passed on through Church, or donate direct by going to

<https://www.christianaid.org.uk/appeals/key-appeals/harvest-appeal/church-collection>

Also, due to the virus, we were unable to do our annual envelope collection this year. Christian Aid are asking for help and if you would like to make a donation please call 020 7523 2269 quoting A035713 or online at:

CAID.org.uk/neighbors

Thank you. Missions Committee

Forthcoming Meetings:

Baldock PCC meeting on Monday 28th September at 7.45pm on Zoom

Community Sponsorship Team meeting on Sunday 18th October at 4.30pm

Delivering stewardship letters (the final week!): if you can help with delivering envelopes within the Baldock area over the next week, we would be really grateful as it saves on postage! Please let Andrew or Alex know if you can help.

Eco Tip Trinity 16: As the C of E has committed to becoming net carbon zero by 2030, please come along to a virtual eco-conference to get inspired! It even has a slot on Baldock's churchyard bee garden www.facebook.com/ecochurchcon

Harvest, Planned Giving and Church finances

We are distributing letters inviting you to consider regular giving to St Mary's. PLEASE DO NOT PUT THIS LETTER IN A SAFE PLACE TO DEAL WITH LATER! One of our biggest hurdles is people who mean to respond but never get round to it. The sermon on Sept 27th will help to put it all in context and from the beginning of October a team of 10 volunteers will be contacting you, if you have not already responded, to answer any questions you may have.

As you may remember, this year was always going to be a tough one financially for the St Mary's and the Corona virus has only made things harder. The latest predictions from Chris Page the treasurer are not as good as we had hoped. The £15 000 projected deficit was assuming that all restrictions would be lifted in the Autumn which, of course, has not and will not happen. A more accurate figure may be nearer £26 000. Sorry to be the transmitter of bad news but it's better to be upfront. And please remember we are no worse off than any other charity and a lot more secure than some. Our giving has not dropped very much (thank you!), it's all the other income that has disappeared.

We are only too aware that because of Covid for some of us will find it impossible to give more than the sacrificial levels they are already contributing and others may well need to be reduce. However for others, there has been little financial impact over the last 6 months and you may well be able to commit to help close the gap. Thank you all for your Christian dedication and compassion.

Planned giving renewal after 4 days

Andy Ball, the planned giving officer, is delighted to say that after only 4 days we have already had an extra £170 per month pledged before Gift Aid. That's £2070 for a full year and if Gift Aid is recoverable it comes to £2550. Thank you very much. Please get your response back as soon as possible. Be part of the story!

Next week's readings: Isaiah 5:1-7, Psalm 80:9-17, Philipians 3:4b-14, Matthew 21:33-end

Mandatory face coverings in places of worship

In England, from 8 August, face coverings are required by law to be worn in a greater number of public indoor settings including places of worship (including church halls), museums, galleries, cinemas and public libraries.

There are valid exemptions for some individuals and groups not to wear a face covering in these settings. In particular, those who are leading services or events in a place of worship, and those who assist them (for instance by reading, preaching, or leading prayer) do not always need to wear a face covering, although one should be worn especially if physical distancing cannot be maintained (i.e. distributing consumables).

These exemptions are made to enable communication, particularly with those who rely on lipreading, facial expressions or clear sound; they do not exempt clergy and other leaders from wearing face coverings in other situations or during other activities. This exemption does not apply to worshippers, who should wear face coverings consistent with the requirements for any other public space.

Hidden Humour

Everyone had to sit two marrows apart.

We are offering a new 5 session group on Wednesday Evenings on Zoom about the Old Testament, entitled 'A closed book or an open wound?' This group is for those who find the Old Testament confusing and struggle to find it relevant to life today! It examines art, embroidery, music and poetry, politics and human relationship, climate change and Covid 19! It begins on Wednesday 4th October at 7.30pm. See the enclosed flyer for more information and the Zoom codes.

Baldock PCC meets next Monday 28th September at 7.45pm

Information for attending services at St Mary's Church

After many months of church being closed for public worship, we are now open for services. If you plan to come to church, please take note of the following information.

- On arrival, please queue outside the South Porch at 2m distance until directed into church by a sidesperson. Whilst waiting, you will be asked if you are happy for your attendance to be recorded in case of the need for track and trace
- On entering the building, please sanitize your hands and you will then be directed to a pew. You will need to remain seated in the pew for the service. Only family bubbles will be able to sit together. All other people must sit in a pew where there is a green tick. Please try to remain facing forwards and avoid face to face contact.
- There will be a collection plate at the door. If putting collection into it, please be careful not to touch the plate.
- No paper materials will be used. All required words will be on the screen.
- There will be NO congregational singing and any responses need to be spoken and not shouted. We will not be sharing the peace.
- Children must remain in the pew with their parents at all times. There will be no materials available for them to play with or colour
- If you wish to receive communion in one kind only, you will be directed to the front. A wafer will be dropped into your hand. The Priest will be wearing a facemask. No words will be spoken. After receiving the bread, it is suggested that you sanitise your hands before returning to your pew.
- At the end of the service you will be directed when to leave your pew and we ask that you leave the building as quickly as possible If you do want to chat to others, please do so once you are outside the building.
- When in the building, please touch as little as possible. Please do not enter any cordoned off areas.
- In light of government directives, face coverings MUST be worn by all those attending a place of worship; remembering that they are mainly intended to protect other people, not the wearer, from coronavirus (COVID-19) and that they are not a replacement for social distancing and regular hand washing.
- If you need the toilet during the service, please let one of the sidespeople know and they will escort you to the church hall so that the toilets can be cleaned after each use in accordance with the guidance.
- The Church of England strongly discourages anyone who is considered to be at extra risk, clinically extremely vulnerable or over 70 from attending public worship at this time as they are advised to minimise contact with others outside of their own household. If you are in this group and choose to attend, you do so at your own risk. For this reason our Zoom worship will be continuing for the foreseeable future at 10:15am.

When attending any service please remember to stay alert and help to prevent the spread of the virus. If you have any symptoms, please remain at home. If you develop any symptoms after attending the service, you must inform us immediately by email baldockbenefice@gmail.com
